

Dal-Tex Flyers Inc.

MEMO REGARDING AVAILABLE SHARE

To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for your interest in our flying organization which has been operating since 1968. DAL-TEX Flyers Incorporated is a non-profit consisting of a maximum of ten (10) owners. The purpose of our organization is to maintain an aircraft for the personal use of its owners. No business use allowed. This also means you cannot claim reimbursement for business use of a personal vehicle. Only hard surface runways may be used.

Members sell their own share of the LLC. There is no initiation fee. For your convenience, enclosed are:

Shareholder Application
Insurance Questionnaire

Airport Regulations
Constitution

Bylaws

To qualify as pilot in command you must have a private pilot certificate and have logged 125 hours as a private pilot. The transfer is subject to Board approval (see Bylaws Article 3 section B). To operate the aircraft as PIC, you must have a high-performance endorsement (> 200 Hp), 10 hours flight time logged in a Cessna 182, have a current medical and biannual endorsement, and be current with your time and landings. You may receive dual instruction in our aircraft to obtain currency, earn the endorsement, and accrue the minimum hours in a C182. Instruction may be given only by an FAA certified flight instructor who is giving instruction to an owner, has a total of 500 hours with at least 10 hours logged for giving instruction in a Cessna 182. To apply for the share, you must fill out the attached application and insurance questionnaire and attach a copy of your:

- Airman Certificate
- Last Medical Certificate
- The last 2 pages of your logbook entries
- The logbook page bearing your high-performance endorsement
- The logbook page bearing your biannual review or latest rating, whichever is later

Thank you for your interest and we look forward to talking to you. More information is available at <https://www.daltexflyers.org> including our corporate documents, meeting minutes, procedures, manuals, etc.

Feel free to contact the undersigned at secretary@daltexflyers.org if you have any questions or to submit your documents.
